

Doreen is a retiree from the New Hartford School District. Doreen has been a teacher and union leader for many years. She is highly involved in union, political, and community service activities. She has been an advocate for change throughout her career and in retirement. Social causes are an integral part of her life. Doreen continues to work tirelessly to support others and make their lives better. Congratulations, Doreen!